PRELIMINARY RECITALS

Pursuant to a petition filed August 12, 2015, under Wis. Stat. § 49.45(5), and Wis. Admin. Code § HA 3.03(1), to review a decision by the Division of Health Care Access and Accountability in regard to Medical Assistance, a hearing was held on September 24, 2015, at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The issue for determination is whether Petitioner has submitted evidence sufficient to demonstrate that additional personal care worker (PCW) hours may be paid for by the Medicaid program.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE:

Division of Hearings and Appeals

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. A prior authorization request for personal care worker services was filed on behalf of Petitioner on May 27, 2015. The request was for 190 units (47.5 hours with each unit = 15 minutes) per week for 53 weeks. Thus the total requested per day was 6.75 hours. The cost is noted to be $402,281.40.

3. The May 26, 2015 PA was partially approved – 82 units (20.5 hours) per week were approved.
4. Petitioner is 60 years of age. She lives in the community with her daughter and her grandchildren. Her diagnoses include bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, gastro esophageal reflux disease, hypertension, diabetes type II, asthma, osteopenia, overactive bladder, diabetic neuropathy, hypokalemia and hyperlipidemia. She does use medical equipment – a cane, walker and an accu-check machine. She has functional limitations that include bowel and bladder incontinence, endurance and ambulation.
5. The approved times for the PCW cares are as follows:

• Bathing	210 min/wk
• Dressing upper & lower body	140 min/wk
• Grooming	210 min/wk
• Toileting	420 min/wk
Sub-total:	980 min/wk
• Services incidental to these tasks (1/4 of above total)	245 min/wk
Total: 1225 min/82 units per week/20.5 hours per week
6. PCW for certain areas of care were not approved by the Department as there are no physician orders – those areas are: applying and removing anti-embolism hose, glucometer readings and skin care. Time was not approved for eating, mobility and transfers, and medications assistance as the Department did not find that PCW time in those areas met legally required standards.

DISCUSSION

When determining whether to approve any medical service, the OIG must consider the generic prior authorization review criteria listed at Wis. Admin. Code, § DHS 107.02(3) (e):

(e) Departmental review criteria. In determining whether to approve or disapprove a request for prior authorization, the department shall consider:

1. The medical necessity of the service;
2. The appropriateness of the service;
3. The cost of the service;
4. The frequency of furnishing the service;
5. The quality and timeliness of the service;
6. The extent to which less expensive alternative services are available;
7. The effective and appropriate use of available services;
8. The misutilization practices of providers and recipients;
9. The limitations imposed by pertinent federal or state statutes, rules, regulations or interpretations, including medicare, or private insurance guidelines;
10. The need to ensure that there is closer professional scrutiny for care which is of unacceptable quality;
11. The flagrant or continuing disregard of established state and federal policies, standards, fees or procedures; and
12. The professional acceptability of unproven or experimental care, as determined by consultants to the department.

“Medically necessary” means a medical assistance service under ch. DHS 107 that is:

(a) Required to prevent, identify or treat a recipient's illness, injury or disability; and

(b) Meets the following standards:

1. Is consistent with the recipient's symptoms or with prevention, diagnosis or treatment of the recipient's illness, injury or disability;
2. Is provided consistent with standards of acceptable quality of care applicable to the type of service, the type of provider, and the setting in which the service is provided;
3. Is appropriate with regard to generally accepted standards of medical practice;
4. Is not medically contraindicated with regard to the recipient's diagnoses, the recipient's symptoms or other medically necessary services being provided to the recipient;
5. Is of proven medical value or usefulness and, consistent with s. DHS 107.035, is not experimental in nature;
6. Is not duplicative with respect to other services being provided to the recipient;
7. Is not solely for the convenience of the recipient, the recipient's family, or a provider;
8. With respect to prior authorization of a service and to other prospective coverage determinations made by the department, is cost-effective compared to an alternative medically necessary service which is reasonably accessible to the recipient; and
9. Is the most appropriate supply or level of service that can safely and effectively be provided to the recipient.

Wis. Admin. Code, §DHS 101.03(96m).

Also, the following Administrative Code provision is relevant here:

DHS 107.112 Personal care services. (1) COVERED SERVICES. (a) Personal care services are medically oriented activities related to assisting a recipient with activities of daily living necessary to maintain the recipient in his or her place of residence in the community. These services shall be provided upon written orders of a physician by a provider certified under s. DHS 105.17 and by a personal care worker employed by the provider or under contract to the provider who is supervised by a registered nurse according to a written plan of care. The personal care worker shall be assigned by the supervising registered nurse to specific recipients to do specific tasks for those recipients for which the personal care worker has been trained. The personal care worker's training for these specific tasks shall be assured by the supervising registered nurse. The personal care worker is limited to performing only those tasks and services as assigned for each recipient and for which he or she has been specifically trained.

(b) Covered personal care services are:

1. Assistance with bathing;
2. Assistance with getting in and out of bed;
3. Teeth, mouth, denture and hair care;
4. Assistance with mobility and ambulation including use of walker, cane or crutches;
5. Changing the recipient's bed and laundering the bed linens and the recipient's personal clothing;
6. Skin care excluding wound care;
7. Care of eyeglasses and hearing aids;
8. Assistance with dressing and undressing;
9. Toileting, including use and care of bedpan, urinal, commode or toilet;
10. Light cleaning in essential areas of the home used during personal care service activities;
11. Meal preparation, food purchasing and meal serving;
12. Simple transfers including bed to chair or wheelchair and reverse; and
13. Accompanying the recipient to obtain medical diagnosis and treatment.

Wis. Admin. Code, §DHS 107.112(1)(a) and (b).

I note at this point that the Petitioner has the burden of proving that the requested therapy meets the approval criteria and that the standard level of proof applicable is a "preponderance of the evidence". This legal standard of review means, simply, that "it is more likely than not" that Petitioner and/or his/her representatives have demonstrated that the requested services meet the criteria necessary for payment by the Wisconsin Medicaid program. It is the lowest legal standard in use in courts or tribunals.

The Department provided a letter (Ex # 3) that detailed its rationale for modifying the original request for personal care services and denying the amendment. It need not be reproduced here. It provides a significant amount of detail as to why it denied additional time.

I am declining to add time to that already approved by the Department. As noted some cares are not included in Petitioner's plan of care with a physician order – again, applying and removing anti-embolism hose, glucometer readings and skin care. Though Petitioner testified that she needs help with toileting 6-7 times per day, the provider only notes 4 and this was approved. As for other areas for which no time was allowed, for the reasons noted in the Exhibit # 3 I am sustaining the agency conclusions. Again, the burden of proof lies with Petitioner and the evidence submitted through the PA and at the hearing does not contain the detail and quantification necessary to change the Department decision.

The provider will not receive a copy of this Decision. Petitioner's family may provide a copy of this Decision to the provider.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

That the evidence offered on behalf of Petitioner is not sufficient to demonstrate that additional personal care worker service hours are to be paid for by the Medicaid program.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That the appeal is dismissed.
